

Resources for investigation of hospital acquired complications.

1. REDCap online audit / survey tools for reviewing my hospital complications

<https://redcap.vanderbilt.edu/consortium/library/search.php>

Search for the word "HAC". There are three pages:

Found 3 results matching your search
Didn't find what you were looking for? Suggest a validated instrument for library inclusion
Title	Downloads
 HAC-1: Demographics Form	2
 HAC-3: Review Tool	2
 HAC-2: Patient Related Factors	1

2. ACSQHC HAC Information Kit

<https://www.safetyandquality.gov.au/our-work/indicators-measurement-and-reporting/complications/hacs-information-kit#download-the-full-kit>

3. Podcast

<https://www.racp.edu.au/pomcast/detail/View//imj-on-air-making-sense-of-hacs>

4. Recent Publications based on data from State of Victoria, Australia.

Duke GJ, Loughnan D, Frietas MD, et al. Clinical evaluation of the national hospital-acquired complication programme. Intern Med J 2022;52(11):1910–6.

Duke GJ, Moran JL, Bersten AD, et al. Hospital-acquired complications: the relative importance of hospital- and patient-related factors. Med J Australia 2022;216(5):242–7.

Duke GJ, Maiden MJ, Huning EYS, et al. Severe acute maternal morbidity trends in Victoria, 2001–2017. Australian New Zealand J Obstetrics Gynaecol 2019;60(4):548–54.

Fernando-Canavan L, Gust A, Hsueh A, et al. Measuring the economic impact of hospital-acquired complications on an acute health service. Aust Health Rev 2020;45(2):135.